Wear Your Christianity!

US military uniforms display a variety of insignia that detail the wearer's rank and different qualifications that he or she may have. In 2005, the US Army mandated the wear of the United States flag on the right shoulder of the combat uniform at all times. Before this, the flag was worn on the uniform only when soldiers were deployed out of the country to identify them as US soldiers. The Army Chief of Staff wanted all soldiers to wear the flag whether at home station in the United States or when deployed to an operational or combat theater so it would serve as a constant reminder that the US Army was an expeditionary force at war, always ready to serve any time and any place.

Christianity is remarkably similar to this. One chooses to follow God and makes the decision to repent from the ways of the world and put on Jesus Christ as his or her "new uniform". From that time forward, it is up to the Christian to "wear" his faith each day, to openly show that he is a follower of God and the Bible, and to serve in such a way that pleases the Lord and inspires others. Matthew 5:16 says: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." In doing so, our reward will be great. Jesus says in Luke 12:8: "I tell you, whoever publicly acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God."

Living our lives as Christians is a service that is rewarding and fulfilling, pleases God, and brings others to Him. Just as soldiers are proud to be part of the US Army and wear the uniform and flag with pride, we can be proud of our affiliation with our Lord and openly show our love for Him each day! –*Written by Bill Rose with Mt.
