always, always,
ALWAYS something to be thankful for

Shut in/Sick List/Prayer Requests

- Amanda Dennis—Had surgery, no report of anything further yet.
- Vickie Gwin—Still compiling records from hospital here to send to Cleveland for further appointments.
- Justin Aikens (Vickie’s son Ryan’s Brother-In-Law)—His liver is failing and he needs a live donor transplant.

3 Ways to Be Thankful through the Holidays

1. Be Thankful in Actions. Colossians 3:17 gives me clear direction stating “whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him,” encouraging me to live out my faith through my actions and reactions.
2. Be Thankful By Remembering. Psalm 77:11 encourages me to remember the deeds of the Lord, which can be as simple as thanking God for His comfort, presence, and peace in daily challenges, remembering that He never leaves me or forsakes me (Hebrews 13:5). Of thinking how I can cast all my anxiety on Him (1 Peter 5:7).
3. Be Thankful in Everything. Giving thanks in everything can seem like a hard task to accomplish at times, especially in difficult circumstances. Even so, 1 Thessalonians 5:18 directs me to make this choice stating, “give thanks in all circumstance; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” –L. Kittle via Crosswalk Devotionals
